

GERMANY MUST PAY TO THE LIMIT--LLOYD GEORGE

SUGAR SECTION OF FOOD BOARD TO DEMOBILIZE

TO ABANDON CERTIFICATES FOR SUGAR

Division of Food Administration to Demobilize Soon

INCREASE TO 4 POUNDS

Each Person Will Get Normal Amount Used Before War

NEW YORK—The sugar division of the United States Food Administration through the country will begin to demobilize about Dec. 1, it was learned here today in anticipation of the arrival of Cuba's sugar in New York. Modification of restrictions affecting consumers will become effective early next month.

The sugar divisions which have complete control over distribution of sugar, and through the refiners, under distribution by wholesalers and retailers, will on Dec. 1 discontinue the certificate system under which sugar had been allocated to manufacturers and dealers as a war-time measure to conserve this commodity. Manufacturers will, however, be required to limit their purchases to a 90 day supply until the arrival of the Cuban sugar about January 10 or 15.

While restrictions on the use of sugar in public places will continue in effect for the present, four pounds of sugar will be allowed to each person each month in the homes, beginning Monday or Tuesday. This was the normal consumption prior to the war. The sugar division had not intended to relinquish control until the end of the year but the decision was reached today that the demobilization would begin two weeks earlier.

NORWAY WILL GIVE WILSON NOBEL PRIZE

Move Planned to Allow Scandinavians to Visit Home Lands

(By the Associated Press)

GRAND FORKS, N. D.—A special grand dispatch to the Normans in this city from Christiania indicates that the Nobel peace prize for 1918 may be awarded to President Wilson who, according to the dispatch, will probably be invited to visit the Norwegian capital in order to personally accept the prize.

The Danish and Swedish governments also are said to consider extending an invitation to the president.

In this connection a suggestion published in the Normans to the effect that American soldiers of Scandinavian birth or descent be given an opportunity to visit their home lands on their return, from France is creating interest and an attempt may be made to bring about such a visit simultaneously with that of the president should he desire to accept the invitation. The matter has been taken up with Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota as well as other congressional members from northwestern states.

EXPECTS 3,500 STUDENTS AT THE UNIVERSITY

No Plans Made for Use of Barracks of S. A. T. C. Unit

It is the opinion of Dean Goodnight that after the holidays the university will be running practically as it was before the war. He estimates that the demobilization of the S. A. T. C. will in a measure impair the attendance at the university the next quarter. He estimates that 50 per cent of the men now in the S. A. T. C. will leave school. These men, he declared, will be demobilized directly after the vocational men have been mustered out. Dean Goodnight estimates that the number of men in the S. A. T. C. who will remain in the university throughout the year will be about 1,000, and that the number of men coming back to the university from other army and navy camps will be about 500. In his opinion the enrollment in the university next quarter will be about 3,500.

It is the opinion of the university authorities who met in conference late this afternoon that the Norman quarter the entire school system will again be upon a rational pre-war basis. While at present the university time table is planned to fit in with the military schedule there will be no necessity of this next semester and a rational university time table will be devised for next quarter.

H. J. Nordstrom, business manager of the university, declared that it is entirely plausible that after the holidays the women's dormitories and Lathrop hall will again be ready for them, and that the fraternities will again be turned over to the contract between the fraternities and the university expire at the same time that the lease between the university and the war department is at an end.

Miss E. P. Leonard, director of halls and commons for the university, declared that in her opinion Chadbourne, Barnard and Lathrop halls would not be ready to be turned over to the women before Feb. 1. "The conditions are very bad and I should not sanction the girls recouping them up, they are thoroughly renovated," she declared.

Many people are wondering what will become of the barracks that have been built at Camp Randall when the S. A. T. C. is demobilized. Mr. Thorvalson said that no plans for their use have as yet been made, but that it is very probable that they will be used for reconstruction work by the students.

The new Y. M. C. A. hut which has just been erected for the use of the men living in the barracks will be sold, Frederick E. Wolf, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., declared that it is very probable that the hut will be moved on one of the lakes and will be used as a camp for some university men. Mr. Wolf will leave on Tuesday for a Y. M. C. A. conference in Chicago at which time it will be decided just how the demobilization plans will affect the Y. M. C. A. work.

EXTRA POSTAGE RATES WILL BE ABANDONED

Finance Committee of Senate Decides on Recommendation

WASHINGTON—Repeal of the increased postage rates was approved today by the senate finance committee. Amendments to the war revenue bill were adopted to abolish the zone increase on second class rates with a proviso that the rate shall be one half cent per pound beyond a 200 mile radius. It also provides for repeal of the extra cent per ounce postage on extra cent per ounce postage.

The committee also ordered into the bill the so-called child labor law, which provides for a one per cent tax on products of child labor.

The change in second class postage, under the committee's amendment, would become effective upon enactment of the bill, while that requiring first class postage rates would be effective July 1, next.

The amendment reducing second class mail rates offered by Senator Smoot provides that upon enactment of the bill the existing zone system, which many publishers particularly those of magazines have attacked, as unjust, would be abolished and that thereafter the second class rate shall be at the old scale of one cent per pound within a radius of 200 miles from mailing points and a half cent per pound outside of the 200 mile zone. The amendment, it was stated, is designed to meet the general desire of newspaper publishers for a fair rate within the principal distribution areas and also to make more equitable the second class rates outside of the 200 mile limit.

Senator Lodge's child labor amendment embodies the compromise provision recently drafted by Senators Pomeroy of Ohio, democrat, and Kenyon, Iowa, republican, to meet the supreme court decision holding a former act unconstitutional.

Asks for Hearing

LONDON—Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, German imperial chancellor at the outbreak of the war, is eager for an investigation into his share in the origin of the conflict, according to a statement he has made in the North German Gazette of Berlin.

The former chancellor in his statement refers to the Bavarian revelations regarding the war's origin and protests against the publication of fragmentary extracts from documents and the deductions made from these.

He admits that Germany was not surprised at Austria's action regarding Serbia, but declares he was not aware of the text of the ultimatum before it was dispatched, and when he saw it he regarded it as too sharp, both in its tone and as to the demands made.

The ex-chancellor says he is anxiously awaiting the day when his case may be judged. "An impartial governmental tribunal," he adds, "but will not allow ourselves to be forced to make untrue confessions."

Extra Service For Extra Penny!

A workman employed in the Gisholt shops this morning telephoned the following information to The Capital Times:

The car which formerly left the corner of University avenue and Mills street at 6:25 o'clock in the morning has been taken off. This is a car on which workmen living in the west end of the city and working in the case and have been using to get to the shops. The next regular car leaves this point at 6:28 o'clock. This is the car which workmen now have to take in order to get to work on time.

This morning there were 142 fares rung up in the 6:25 car. The men were packed into the car like sardines.

"And this is what the railroad commission is giving us for the extra fare," said the workman.

The six-cent fare was inaugurated yesterday. Metal checks have been received and are now being sold on all cars. Conductors experience considerable difficulty in making change because of a shortage of pennies.

"2. The instruction contained herein apply only to individual and exceptional cases and are not extended to release men in large groups or blocks for any general employment or occupation."

"3. Application for discharge under the provision of this circular will be made in each individual case by the soldier concerned and through his immediate commanding officer. No man who voluntarily enlisted prior to April 1, 1917, will be discharged under this authority."

"This office suggests that in cases of soldiers whose circumstances are such as are stated in this circular, affidavits as to the facts be procured from employers or other persons who know the circumstances, and that those affidavits be mailed to the individual soldiers, to be attached by them to their applications for discharge."

HUNDREDS OF WAR CONTRACTS ARE DOUBTFUL

Comptroller of Treasury Department in Decision on Subject

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—Government war contracts involving hundreds of millions of dollars were rendered doubtful in status by a decision of Comptroller Warwick of the treasury that orders have not been legally executed unless actually signed by representative governments, contracting agents and the contractor.

The war department submitted to the comptroller a form of cancellation agreement under which it was proposed to abandon without unjust loss to contractors thousands of war supply contracts. He refused to approve the agreement holding that the department may not agree with a contractor, an arbitrary sum to cover liabilities unless specified authorization for this is given in a previously existing contract.

A large proportion of war orders were given informally by telephone, telegraph or letter, it is said. In such cases the comptroller held new legislation will be necessary to permit framing of agreements for cancellation.

In the confusion and haste of war, many manufacturers proceeded with tremendous orders on telegraphic instructions of subordinate army officers and the termination of hostilities, and thus unprotected by legal contract. The authority of the controller who has rendered their position questionable, grows out of his supervision of all payments by the treasury on order of other departments.

In submitting the tentative form for a standard cancellation contract Secretary Baker explained that "it is important in the interest of labor and the national security of the country that these plants, producing mainly to munition factories, be returned to commercial work as speedily as practicable and so far as possible without a break in their continuous operation and employment of labor."

Secretary Baker continued: "The war department believes that many such contractors are willing to forego the prospective profits on the remainder of the work contemplated by the contract and terminate the existing contract on a basis which would amount substantially to compensation for expenditures incurred and profits lost to the extent of 10 per cent on the cost of the unfinished work on hand—a basis not favorable to the government under the terms of the contract would permit—if they can secure promptly a substantial portion of this sum so as to release their working capital for switching back to commercial work."

"The department therefore desires to enter into supplementary contracts with such contractors by which a sum well within what it is certain would have to be paid by the government on such basis of adjustment will be paid immediately just to the termination of the original contract and a release to the government from all its obligations thereunder, the department agreeing to pay substantially such additional sum as the secretary of war may determine will complete payment to the contractors on such basis of adjustment."

Comptroller Warwick held that no blanket form of contract could be devised to cover all cancellations. He declared that cases involving only equitable claims cannot be settled by executive officers without new legislation.

When original contracts contained no terminating clause the decision of the comptroller is doubtful whether a new contract could be made allowing more than actual cost of materials on hand less their salvage value. In other words, it is questionable whether allowance could be made for a profit growing out of the cancellation.

Furthermore, the decision set forth an army officer with responsibility for negotiating contracts has no legal power to decide on a sum to which a contractor is entitled for cancellation of an order, even though this sum is agreed upon with the contractor.

He refused to approve the agreement holding that the department may not agree with a contractor, an arbitrary sum to cover liabilities unless specified authorization for this is given in a previously existing contract.

A large proportion of war orders were given informally by telephone, telegraph or letter, it is said. In such cases the comptroller held new legislation will be necessary to permit framing of agreements for cancellation.

In the confusion and haste of war, many manufacturers proceeded with tremendous orders on telegraphic instructions of subordinate army officers and the termination of hostilities, and thus unprotected by legal contract. The authority of the controller who has rendered their position questionable, grows out of his supervision of all payments by the treasury on order of other departments.

In submitting the tentative form for a standard cancellation contract Secretary Baker explained that "it is important in the interest of labor and the national security of the country that these plants, producing mainly to munition factories, be returned to commercial work as speedily as practicable and so far as possible without a break in their continuous operation and employment of labor."

Secretary Baker continued: "The war department believes that many such contractors are willing to forego the prospective profits on the remainder of the work contemplated by the contract and terminate the existing contract on a basis which would amount substantially to compensation for expenditures incurred and profits lost to the extent of 10 per cent on the cost of the unfinished work on hand—a basis not favorable to the government under the terms of the contract would permit—if they can secure promptly a substantial portion of this sum so as to release their working capital for switching back to commercial work."

"The department therefore desires to enter into supplementary contracts with such contractors by which a sum well within what it is certain would have to be paid by the government on such basis of adjustment will be paid immediately just to the termination of the original contract and a release to the government from all its obligations thereunder, the department agreeing to pay substantially such additional sum as the secretary of war may determine will complete payment to the contractors on such basis of adjustment."

Comptroller Warwick held that no blanket form of contract could be devised to cover all cancellations. He declared that cases involving only equitable claims cannot be settled by executive officers without new legislation.

When original contracts contained no terminating clause the decision of the comptroller is doubtful whether a new contract could be made allowing more than actual cost of materials on hand less their salvage value. In other words, it is questionable whether allowance could be made for a profit growing out of the cancellation.

Furthermore, the decision set forth an army officer with responsibility for negotiating contracts has no legal power to decide on a sum to which a contractor is entitled for cancellation of an order, even though this sum is agreed upon with the contractor.

HUNDREDS OF WAR CONTRACTS ARE DOUBTFUL

Comptroller of Treasury Department in Decision on Subject

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—Government war contracts involving hundreds of millions of dollars were rendered doubtful in status by a decision of Comptroller Warwick of the treasury that orders have not been legally executed unless actually signed by representative governments, contracting agents and the contractor.

The war department submitted to the comptroller a form of cancellation agreement under which it was proposed to abandon without unjust loss to contractors thousands of war supply contracts. He refused to approve the agreement holding that the department may not agree with a contractor, an arbitrary sum to cover liabilities unless specified authorization for this is given in a previously existing contract.

A large proportion of war orders were given informally by telephone, telegraph or letter, it is said. In such cases the comptroller held new legislation will be necessary to permit framing of agreements for cancellation.

FOURTH OF M. E. CHURCHES ARE PASTORLESS

Campaign for Recruiting 53,000 Religious Workers to be Started

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK—One-fourth of the Methodist Episcopal churches in the United States are without pastors, it was announced here by the Joint Centenary committee of that denomination in making public plans for a campaign to recruit 53,000 religious workers. The recruits, 13,000 of whom will be clergymen, will be utilized in helping raise $30,000 to advance the cause of Methodism throughout the world. The fund will be in honor of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the first Methodist mission in this country.

The war's greatest drain on Methodist educational institutions was shown by the report that from 42 colleges and universities of the church 9,617 men had gone into military service and 6,287 more were enrolled in the students' army training corps.

Forty thousand of the workers now to be recruited will consist of deaconesses, medical missionaries, teachers and laymen. They will man the hospitals, schools and churches to be established here and abroad. Bishop Theodore S. Henderson of Detroit and the Rev. Dr. J. Franklin Reen of New York are in charge of the recruiting campaign.

HUNT TO ATTEND CHURCH UNITY NATIONAL MEET

Project Fostered by Local Pastors to be Taken by Council

The project of national church unity, which was first fostered by Madison Presbyterian pastors, will be taken up at a national congress to be held in Philadelphia, Dec. 3-6, which more than 100 representatives of the leading Protestant denominations of the country are expected to attend.

The Rev. George E. Hunt will represent the Madison Presbyterian at this meeting. F. C. Moorhouse, Milwaukee, will represent the Protestant Episcopal churches; Prof. A. E. Dahlman, Dr. Dr. Cheyogyan, the Reformed Church of the United States.

This movement was presented to the Madison presbytery last fall by the local Presbyterian pastors, the Revs. George E. Hunt, Karl Von Krug and M. G. Allison. The plan as adopted by this and other presbyteries was presented to and adopted by the General Assembly of Presbyterian churches, with the proposal for an interdenominational council to map out the details.

The aim of the movement is to make one federal church out of all Protestant denominations.

EATS FROM HOME RUSH POSTMEN

Over 400 Specials Delivered by Local Office Thanks-giving

Turkeys, chickens, cakes, pies, cookies, candies, everything like Mother used to make, kept the postmen on the jump, Thanksgiving day. Over 400 special delivery letters and packages were delivered during the morning, the majority of the packages, especially, going to the university students and soldiers. An average busy day, in special deliveries, reckoning on Sunday mail, is 150 deliveries.

Five men, three wagons, and one automobile were kept going from 7 o'clock to noon Thursday in getting packages to their destination on time. All parcel post packages, whether special or not, were delivered.

A large amount of foreign soldier mail came in Thursday, said Postmaster W. A. Devine, today.

OUR TROOPS WILL HOLD THIS TERRITORY," GENERAL DICKMAN TELLS U. S. WRITERS

Major General Dickman, commander of U. S. army of occupation, discussing occupation with American correspondents in France.

Major Gen. Joseph T. Dickman, who is in command of the American army of occupation, now advancing toward the German frontier, is thoroughly familiar with German affairs and speaks German fluently. He has translated several military works. He was born in Ohio sixty-one years ago. He was graduated from West Point in 1881 and was assigned to the Third cavalry. In the Spanish-American war he was acting commissary of the cavalry division commanded by Gen. Joseph Wheeler. In 1899 he served as chief of staff to Lieut. Gen. Adna R. Chaffee in the Philippines and in China in the Boxer uprising.

BRITAIN'S WORST BLUNDER RECALLED; TRADED HELGOLAND FOR ZANZIBAR

It was in 1890, when the relations between the British and German empires were of the most cordial description, that one of the greatest indiscretions ever committed by an English premier took place—the turning over of the island of Helgoland to the Kaiser in return for the protectorate of Zanzibar, says the New York Herald.

Lord Salisbury was then directing the foreign affairs of the empire, in addition to being head of the government. He was approached cautiously by William II's ambassador at London. With true Prussian craft the latter pointed out that the gray rock in the North sea was useless to Great Britain and that his master desired it only for sentimental reasons.

After all—as his excellency suggested—what was it more than a small German summer resort under a foreign flag? The prime minister saw light through Prussian eyes, announced his decision to parliament, and there was no discussion on the subject.

Great Britain woke up a few days after the bargain had been made. Every German ship available was dressed with flags and took part in the procession that went out to take possession. And hardly had the standard of the new owners been raised than work was begun on the fortifications which were to make the island a thorn in the side of the allies from August, 1914, until a short time ago.

Hoover's Aid Says Feeding of Central Empires Will Not Hurt Home Folks

(By the Associated Press)
PARIS (Wednesday)—"No fear need be entertained regarding the feeding of the central empires," said a member of the committee of the Hoover relief fund, who was in conference with the American members of food commission and met Victor Boret, French minister of provisions, and his under secretary, M. Villegrain, last night.

"Three problems have been solved concerning the job," said one of Mr. Hoover's lieutenants. "These are the shipping problem, concerning which the report of Chairman Hurley of the shipping board is awaited; the financial question, and the question of food purchasing."

POINCARÉ AND KING GEORGE AT BANQUET

Pay Tributes to France and England; See United Nations

(By the Associated Press)
PARIS—The dinner given to King George last night by President Poincaré, the newspapers declare, was one of the most notable events in the history of Great Britain and France.

President Poincaré, in toasting Great Britain, recalled the agreement made between the two countries in 1904 and the efforts of both Great Britain and France to avoid war in 1914. He declared that Great Britain's naval military and moral effort during the war had added an incomparable chapter to her splendid history. He praised the work of the British army and the efforts of the British navy, concluding:

"The pre-war friendship has changed into an active alliance which will find in the peace negotiations a new utility. We have suffered together and won together and are united forever."

King George expressed his great pleasure in being in Paris, the capital of the country with which he and his people had shared the misfortunes as well as the victory of the war. He recalled the vain efforts of the Germans to capture Paris and the final triumphant campaign of the allies under the direction of Marshal Foch. Both nations, he added, had struggled for civilization and right and had learned to appreciate each other, and he hoped that the union of hearts and interests resulting from the war, would always aid to the maintenance of peace. He also paid tribute to France's heroism and to the future happiness and prosperity of the French people.

V. BARNES SAYS AMERICA IS BEST

High School Principal Back From Y. M. C. A. Work in France

Every American soldier now realizes that America is the best country in the world, and they are all eager to get back home, is the message brought by Volney G. Barnes, principal of the Madison High school, who returned, Wednesday afternoon, from France where he had been serving for over a year with the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Barnes saw practically all of the heavy fighting in the recent campaigns.

He tells of the French peace celebration as follows:

"The French people are content now. The peace celebration in Paris is beyond description. It was kept up for three days. There was no attempt at any organized parades—the people just swarmed the streets. The Place de la Concorde was filled with captured German guns. Women and children rode astride the cannon as they were pulled through the streets by soldiers. Automobiles kept off the streets because the crowds were so dense that it was impossible to make any headway with a car."

SAYS LIVING WAGE IS $5.80

Frank P. Walsh in Statement Says Standards Must Not Lower

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Frank P. Walsh, joint chairman of the national war labor board, said in a statement made public Wednesday night that labor must not be expected to return to the pre-war basis of wages and working hours. The only hope for a safe, orderly development, he declared is in the maintenance of present wage levels and continuous improvements of conditions of labor.

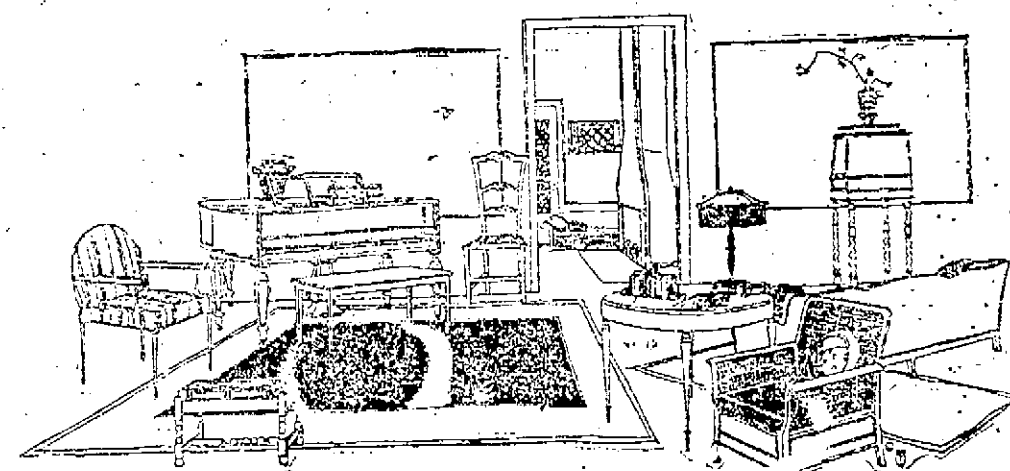

Investigations conducted by the war labor board, Mr. Walsh said, show that the lowest possible wage on which a worker and his family can subsist in health and reasonable comfort is 72½ cents an hour, based on the eight-hour day. This means $5.80 a day or $24.80 a week. These same inquiries he asserted, revealed that before the war the great majority of laborers were earning far below the amount necessary for a "decent and healthy family existence."

Mr. Walsh predicted there will be no return to the pre-war level of costs of necessities within five years, at least, and said that even with the reduction in living costs the present wage standards must be maintained for then "the workers in the average industry will be receiving only a fair return for their work."

BACKING UP AMERICAN ARMY OF OCCUPATION

While the infantry of the American army of occupation has been advancing rapidly into German territory to hold it as a guarantee during the armistice period the U. S. artillery forces have been following to back up the boys if the need arises. The gun shown in the photo is one of the American railway artillery, 16-caliber type produced by the U. S. ordnance department. It is believed that guns of this type are being taken along by the artillery for use in emergency. The railway artillery in France is named by the U. S. coast artillery. The ammunition for these monster weapons, which are mounted on steel cars, is carried in a car attached to the rear of the gun car.

DESCRIBES WAR WORK AT FORD MOTOR PLANT

Snaddon, Stationed at Detroit Factory, Writes Judge Stevens

The 100 percent war work being carried on in the Ford Motor company plant, Detroit, is told in the following letter from G. M. Snaddon of Madison, formerly manual arts instructor at Oshkosh, received by Judge E. Ray Stevens:

My Dear Mr. Stevens: Your last letter was forwarded to me at the above address. I was detailed here a little over a month ago by the adjutant general of the army, 100 per cent war work is being done. I am in the department where work is being done for the more rapid production of liberty motors, artillery caissons, tractors, etc.

These and other articles of war are being produced by the thousand and steel helmets by the million by the Ford company alone. Many other concerns here are doing war work. Dodge Bros. making recoil mechanisms for the big guns, the Cadillac company building motors and trucks, the Lincoln Motor company being engaged exclusively in the manufacture of Liberty motors.

Something like six hundred million dollars worth of government work is being taken care of here. The Ford company has a recently built magnificent ship-building plant where 220 foot submarine chasers are being built. Here also are being made the Ford one-man tanks, a weapon of war that looks as though it ought to make "Fritz" run.

I find many uniformed men here, soldiers and sailors from various camps all over the country distributed throughout the various plants in various capacities.

At Ft. Wayne, a fifteen minute ride from the city, there is a regular army post, something similar to the one at Columbus where many of the soldiers are stationed. Others are located at hotels and rooming places for the present. Plans are being made to build barracks in the future. In addition to this there is an aviation field not far from here and a naval training station where future submarine destroyer crews are being trained.

I recollect your writing me in one of your letters that you saw Robert leave for camp Grant some weeks ago. His stay there was short, something like three weeks, he having been made a corporal almost immediately upon arriving. He was transferred to Sparta, Wis., where regiments were being formed for overseas duty. The last I heard from him he was equipped and ready to board a transport, and no doubt is well on his way "over there" by this time. He is in the 311th Trench Motor Brigade.

This Army and Navy Club is similar to the Khaki club we had in Ohio. It is well taken advantage of by the boys here, and very much enjoyed and appreciated by them.

Detroit's drive for seventy-four million worth of Liberty bonds starts tomorrow. They expect to go overwhelmingly "over the top."

When time permits I shall be glad to hear from you again.

Yours for the Fourth Liberty loan, G. M. SNADDON.

Tollund Writes Stevens. M. A. Tollund writes to Judge Stevens from France as follows:

In France, Nov. 4, 1918. Dear Pal:

Shall take advantage of the beautiful afternoon and spend it in letter writing.

News travels very slowly when so far away, nevertheless word has reached me that you were taken sick. I hope it was not serious and that you have fully recovered.

From reports received the Spanish influenza has played havoc back in the U. S. Let us hope the epidemic is past and but few were victims.

How do you like the way we are treating the Hun? I think they have ceased to think the Americans non-combatants. They have come to find boys who know not how to retreat, nor what surrender means. I think the Kaiser must hate himself more than ever now. By all indications he and "Gott" must have had a fall out. Perhaps the latter is not doing as Bill wanted.

Bulgaria, Turkey and Austria have had enough and are mighty glad to lay down. So is Germany but Pride and Egotism of the imperial power hates to acknowledge it. If you were here this afternoon I should treat you to the famous French drink "wine." They use it for more things than we do milk at home.

What is the good news at the capital city these days?

I have often wondered how the new Y. M. C. A. building was progressing. I am told that a new theatre has been erected lately.

News is scarce so must close my epistle for this time. Hoping you will be able to read my scribbling. My desk is a board and yours truly is seated on top of a pile of logs. Best regards to everybody. As ever your soldier,

Pvt. M. A. Tollund.

One of the annoyances of peace will be that Uncle Henry will stop his war work and start a quantity production of Silvers again.

A QUESTION FOR THE RAILROAD COMMISSION

THE CAPITAL TIMES has opened its columns to the Wisconsin Railroad Commission for articles replying to charges that have been made by this newspaper. These articles have now been published.

Before replying to these articles in more detail The Capital Times would like to ask one question of the commission. We believe that this question goes to the heart of the charge made by The Capital Times that the present railroad commission is more eager to serve wealth and privilege than it is to serve the people.

In the first article of the commission appears the following statement:

"The practice of the commission since its establishment has been to allow about seven and one-half per cent return to street car companies."

That is about $54,600 on a valuation of $728,000.

The question we would like to ask of the commission is this:

Why is it that you come to the aid of the street railway company so quickly when it is alleged that earnings will not reach 7½ per cent by INCREASING the fare while you made no move to DECREASE the fares when the company was making at least 12 per cent and better?

If it is right to INCREASE fares in 1918 to bring returns up to 7½ per cent why wouldn't it have been equally just to have REDUCED fares in 1917 to a point that would have produced the same return? Why was the company allowed to make 12 per cent in 1917? And why couldn't the commission tell the company now to use some of the 1916 and 1917 excess to pull them through the present alleged emergency?

Why isn't the commission as eager to serve the people when utilities are making 12 to 15 per cent as it is to serve wealth and privilege when utilities cry that they are not making 7½ per cent?

ANOTHER QUESTION

ANOTHER question along the same line: Will the commission deny that the Madison Gas and Electric company is making more than 7½ per cent on its electric utility AT THE PRESENT TIME?

We don't believe the commission will.

Now: If the rates to the Madison railway company are INCREASED to bring an earning of 7½ per cent why shouldn't electric rates to the people be REDUCED to a point that will give the same return to the Madison Gas and Electric Co.?

Why should this 7½ per cent policy be used only when it works to the advantage of the utilities? Why shouldn't it also be used when it works to the advantage of the people?

GEORGE CREEL

AND while ignorant farmers and working men, pacifists and other peaceful citizens are bawled out in federal courts in coarse and vituperative language, and duly sentenced to long terms in federal prisons, along comes Congress and newspapers like the Chicago Tribune and charge the government publicity agent with falsifying the facts of production and shipment of ammunition. It is said that such failure to produce and ship has caused the unnecessary loss of thousands of our boys. George Creel is one of the proposed presidential party to hobnob with the crowned heads of Europe.

THE FEDERAL COURTS

THE offensive language used by many federal judges in the trial of espionage cases; the extreme sentences imposed on ignorant men and women for minor offenses while big offenders go unwhipped of justice, is a public scandal. Now that the war is over the public is beginning to realize how far afield we have gone in our courts of justice.

Russia exiling political offenders to Siberia has nothing on some of our federal courts in the extreme sentences they have imposed. Anarchists have been manufactured pretty fast in this country in the last year and respect for the courts has been rapidly disappearing.

Not only in the federal courts but in our state courts trouble is brewing. In the Mooney case it was found after Mooney had been convicted and a new trial denied that the principal witness against Mooney was corrupt. The court that tried Mooney expressed itself as satisfied that Mooney had not had a fair trial and requested the Supreme Court to order a new trial. But the Supreme Court refused to do so and Mooney is to be hanged December 15. Most laboring men believe that Mooney was so moved by the presentation of the facts that he interceded to get a new trial for Mooney all to no effect.

The radical movements in Europe should teach us a lesson here. But no. We have simply gone to the other extreme. Of fenses punished, if at all, by not exceeding two years' imprisonment are being punished here with fifteen and twenty years' imprisonment. Words absolutely innocent before the espionage act are made a heinous crime and punished to the extreme limits of the law. All in the land of free speech and a free press.

UNIVERSAL TRAINING.

To the editor of The Capital Times:

I think that the honest opposition to universal training in arms of all citizens is based mostly on two or three points of view.

One of these is that it is a waste of money to train a man in the use of a weapon when he is not to use it.

Another is that it is a waste of time to train a man in the use of a weapon when he is not to use it.

Soldier's Letter

The following letter has been received by Mrs. Odella Gresse, 404 N. Frances street:

Somewhere in France,
October 23d, 1918.

Dear Mother:

As I have a few minutes time, I will send you a few lines. I received one of your letters last Sunday and was glad to hear from you. The letter was dated the 25th of September, so you see we get your mail in about three or four weeks. And when you have my post office number, I'll get it still faster.

I am getting along fine and haven't been sick a day. The change of climate, I suppose, affected some of the boys but they are about over it now. I am working in the office part of the time yet.

I had a letter from Alvin the other day and wrote back to him at his old address; his mail will be forwarded anyhow, same as ours. I've had 25 letters already since I'm across; they're pretty good, but I hope I've got many more on the way. We are all anxious to receive mail and there is quite a stir when the mail comes. We get some every day.

This world isn't as big as it seems; at any rate, it doesn't appear as big to me any more as it used to. Last Sunday I just came from church and was walking down the road when someone yelled to me. It was Werner Esser, of Madison, a member of the St. George Society. I was on his bowling team the last year. I was there; Alvin Pass was on the same team. He was marching with him. He had three big packages of Madison papers and he gave me one of them. They were the first ones I had seen since we left Camp Mills.

In the back of the column someone else yelled at me and I found it was Snyder, also from Madison. I've also seen Glen Killey, who married Mary Coyne of Pine Bluff; and Devoll, a barber at Middleton; he played on their baseball team. In the band now is at present at an infantry school; expect he will return to us in about two weeks.

I understand the government will issue its sweaters, helmets, wristlets and mufflers denoted by the Red Cross. So I'll be alright. Even if we don't get them, we won't freeze as I hear it doesn't get very cold here. We are at present sleeping in a big chateau; I sleep right in the office. In the morning I move my bed in the hall and bring it in again at night. The first few days it was pretty damp as the chateau had not been used for quite a while, but now it is fine. We have an open fireplace in the room, in fact I believe there's all they have in France. I haven't seen a stove yet, except cooking stoves, of course.

Sunday morning we had mass in one of the French churches. Father Boyle said mass and I served. It was the first time I had served for about two years but I didn't forget how. The town in which we were first billeted was 100 per cent Catholic, all the people were Catholic. Now we have moved about three miles from the town and are within half a mile of the church. At the first place, the church was right across the street from our billet.

Well, I will write again in a few days. With love to you and all, I remain,

JOSEPH.

DINNER STORIES

"Now, then! Line up alphabetically for pay," said the sergeant.

"What's your name my lad?"

"Phillips, sir."

"Well, what yer doing up here?"

"Get back with the F's at once."

A lawsuit was in full swing and during its progress a witness was cross examined as to the habits and character of the defendant.

"Has Mr. M. a reputation for being abnormally lazy?" asked counsel briskly.

"Well, sir, it's this way—"

"Will you kindly answer the question asked?" struck in the inquisitorial lawyer.

"Well, sir, I was going to say it's this way. I don't want to do the gentleman in question any injustice. And I won't go so far as to say sir, that he's exactly lazy; but if it required any voluntary work on his part to digest his food—why he'd die from lack of nourishment."

A guard was repeating these words.

"Corporal of the guard, post No. 8," when an officer approached him and said, "Say that again, and out out the post!" The guard went on as ordered and repeated, "Corporal of the guard No. 8, out out the post."

Private Jim in a letter to his mother spoke of one of the boys in his company's close resemblance to General Foch.

Wishing to compliment the soldier boy, he said, "I don't wish to flatter you, but you resemble General Foch very much."

The soldier replied, "I don't feel flattered in the least, but General Foch should feel so."

RAILROAD MAN DIES.

MANITOWOC.—William H. Vandegrift, former division superintendent of the Milwaukee division of the Lake Shore railway and later general agent for the Wisconsin Central lines here, died from an attack of heart failure while seated at home smoking and conversing with his family.

Mr. Vandegrift was 73 years old. He came to Wisconsin from Ohio in 1885, establishing a residence at Appleton where he became division superintendent of the old Lake Shore and Western railroad.

At the time of his death he was in the government employ at the shipyards. His wife and three children survive.

"Fattened near Watertown, Wisconsin" is the best recommendation for geese to poultry buyers all over the United States. "The business of fattening geese on a large scale is an industry almost exclusive to Wisconsin," says J. G. Hugin, of the College of Agriculture. "Most of this industry is carried on near Watertown." The buyers are paying a premium for the fattened geese this year says Mr. Halpin. The "Victory" meeting of Wisconsin's 30 county agents, 24 emergency food agents and all other agricultural extension workers will be held here next week. During the meeting G. I. Christie, assistant secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture, will lead the discussions on the farm labor situation. Nine young women who were

The home demonstration agents in 15 different counties in Wisconsin won the name of "Women Flu Fighters" during the recent influenza epidemic. AT THE STRAND

BILLIE BURKE
in "Let's Get a Divorce"

AT THE THEATRES

ORPHEUM
A special holiday bill, good from first to last, is being shown at the Orpheum the last half of this week, playing to three capacity houses Thanksgiving day.

Harry Gilbert, an old timer here, made a big hit with his dialect and comedy singing. Jarvis and Hamilton vied with Gilbert as favorites on the bill and received a great deal of applause in their laughing act and kept the house in an uproar most of the time.

Dolores Vulecica with her imperial group of performing leopards, billed as the headline, presented an unusual animal act, showing absolute control over the ferocious beasts.

"Oh, You Women," comedy playlet, presented by Martha Hamilton, and comedy, struck home with its humorously presented sketch of the evils of gambling, the call of the installment collector, and subsequent removal of furniture.

The Althoff Sisters opened the bill with a musical act, the pianist winning applause for her mastery of the piano. The official allies' war pictures were interesting as ever.

AT NEW STRAND TODAY.

The romance of life in a French convent and its effect upon an impressionable girl is admirably illustrated in "Let's Get a Divorce," the new Paramount starring vehicle featuring Billie Burke, the dainty actress, whose work in "Eve's Daughter" and other successful photoplays, will be well remembered.

In this story, which is an adaptation by John Emerson and Anita Loos of Victorien Sardou's "Divorcons," the celebrated stage success, Miss Burke depicts in delightful fashion the romance of Cyprien Marcey, a girl in a convent whose numerous, harmless flirtations, demands a divorce, which she later refuses to accept and finally discovers the error of her ways, and a reconciliation with her husband follows.

This charming photoplay, "Let's Get a Divorce," will be presented at the Strand theater today. It is an excellent vehicle for Miss Burke, and was directed by Charles Giblyn.

MAJESTIC

"The Golden Fleece" is the title of the new Triangle play starring Peggy Pearce to be shown at the Majestic theater today. It is from the famous Saturday Evening Post story by Fred Astors. It is the tale of a country genius who hits upon the big idea of "Build Your Own Car," a knockdown auto proposition.

HOWE'S PICTURES

The last two performances of the new Lyman H. Howe pictures will be given at the Fuller, this afternoon and night; the matinee starting at 2:30 and the evening performance at 8:15. This season's program, as presented at the Fuller yesterday, to two capacity houses proved very interesting and entertaining, and in keeping with the high standard in motion pictures.

Many new and timely subjects are shown: "Up in the Air with the Marines," "South America: The Rockies," Southern France; Mexico, and the every delightful and funny cartoon comedies, which are always a feature of the Howe program.

"TILL I COME BACK TO YOU"

The picture program for the Fuller tomorrow will be Cecil B. DeMille's production, "Till I Come Back to You," with Bryant Washburn in the lead part.

GRAND

"Carmen of the Klondike" is a most unusual picture written by Monte M. Katterjohn and will be shown at the Grand theatre for 3 days commencing today.

The story which is replete with tense dramatic scenes and stirring situations keyed with suspense, is laid in the Klondike mountains of Alaska during the days of the gold rush. Miss Williams plays the part of "Dorothy Harlan," a former vaudeville favorite, who is during the wilds of the north to join her lover, who is striving to make the professor of attorney thrive in the settlement of Skawag, where laws are made and broken by the brutal strength of men.

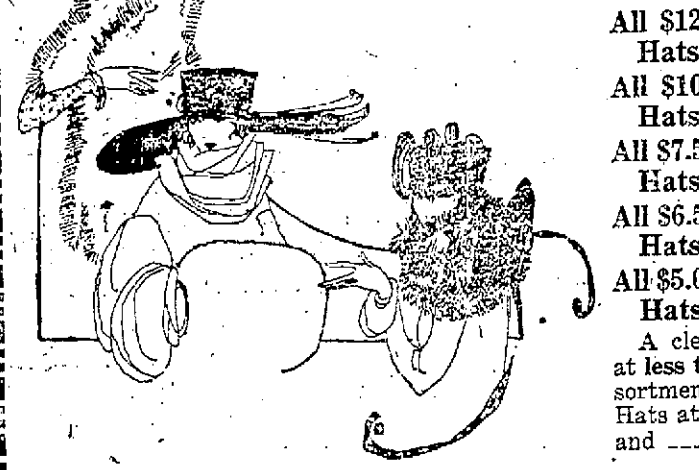

At the opening of the story, Dorothy meets on the boat to Alaska, "Silk McDonald," a dance hall owner and a dominant figure in Alaska. She repulses his attentions but in a rage he threatens her safety. "Silk" makes good his threat even to a greater extent than Dorothy had feared. Soon after she arrives in Skawag, the gold rush is started and the "Peel River" country, and "Carmen Stewart," Dorothy's fiancé, unaware that she is within thousands of miles, leaves with a frenzied

WOMEN WERE INDIVIDUAL IN MIDDLE AGES

Mrs. Rosenberry Traces Development of S. G. A. From Early Days

"Extremely individual were all women in the middle ages," said Mrs. L. R. Rosenberry in a lecture to the home economics students Wednesday.

"Men were noted only as groups representing certain cults. They had no individuality whatsoever. Women, on the contrary, were only in groups when connected with the church, and individual woman in medieval times often filled the positions of men."

"Among the Germans, even in the earliest times, women were highly esteemed. They were often given special privileges, such as being allowed to give their opinions on matters of public welfare, which were discussed at length up to as oracles. During the later years of the middle ages they often acted as regents for German and Frankish kings, while the latter were on crusades. The church was the great standard of women, because it protected their lives and their property. This was especially true in the thirteenth centuries. The nuns were the only organizations open to women. Through them many women rose to great power and dignity in the state. The women had few opportunities of miners for the snow-bound regions of the mountains. In the backwoods, Stewart encountered hardship and treachery at the hands of McDonald's accomplices and even from McDonald himself, who badly injured Cameron in a fight and rushes ahead to civilization to jump his claim. Back in Skawag, Dorothy, discouraged with life, is shown as under the impression that Stewart has been untrue to her and is living the despoiled life of a dance hall girl. When McDonald comes from the mining country she meets him again and there is a surprise point which comes as a shock to both McDonald and Dorothy herself. The climax shortly follows this incident and is one of the strongest which has ever been used in a drama of the screen.

The part of "Carmen Stewart" is portrayed by Edward Coxen, and Herschell Mayall impersonates the character of "Silk McDonald." Joseph J. Dowling, the estimable character actor, does some wonderful work in the picture as "Salvatore Jock," an old enemy of McDonald's, who is seeking revenge but lacks the courage to seek it.

Week's Contributions Must be Augmented to Ensure Success

Women all over the world realize more and more that their work at home will help the men at the front. It involves great sacrifices, hard work and unusual physical strength. Women at home should study nursing for war and for the home. A good way to learn is to ask your druggist for a copy or send 50c. to publishers of the "Medical Adviser," 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and get a copy of their 1,000 page book bound in cloth, with chapters on First Aid, Taking Care of the Sick or Wounded, Physiology, Hygiene, Anatomy, Sex Problems, Mother and Babe. Nobody, man or woman, can do good work when health is impaired. If a woman is nervous or has dizzy spells, suffers from aural pains at regular or irregular intervals she should turn to a tonic made up of herbs, and without alcohol, which makes weak women strong and sick women well. It is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Now sold by pharmacists in liquid or tablets. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package of the tablets.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a true friend to women in times of trial and at times of pain when the organs are not performing their functions. For headache, backache, hot flashes, catarrhal condition, mental depression, dizziness, fainting spells, nervousness or exhaustion, women should never fail to take this tried and true woman's medicine.

"OUT OF THE HIGH RENT DISTRICT"

STATE ASKS 57 EDUCATORS FOR MEN OVERSEAS

Y. M. C. A. Opens School Doors to Army Waiting for Demobilization

SELECT MEN SOON

A new challenge has come to the educators of Wisconsin in the request of the war work council of the Y. M. C. A. for 57 educational executives for overseas work as Wisconsin's quota of the army of men which is to carry on the educational program of the United States among American soldiers in Europe.

Early in 1918 the Y. M. C. A. sent an educational commission, consisting of five educators of national prominence, to study the educational program to be inaugurated by the war department have been formulated for an elaborate system of education for the benefit of American soldiers in Europe. The thousands of young men who were taken out of college, away from business, or from professions, upon which they were just entering, to defend their country, have finished their military work, but it will be months, and perhaps years, before all can return to normal life. So that they need not waste further time, educational facilities will be provided to enable them to employ profitably the months that intervene before they return.

Some idea of the magnitude of the work may be gained from the fact that on October 1, 200,000 men were studying French, 40,000 illiterates in the American army were studying English, and 75,000 were studying mathematics. With the coming of peace, the educational opportunities will increase many fold.

To organize and administer an educational enterprise, to take care of over a million men requires a large number of educational executives with personality, vision, and ability. They must be men who can solve these new problems who can be presented to the army for which there is neither precedent nor analogy. A thousand of these men are needed at once and Wisconsin has been asked to contribute of this number 57. To find out the best men who can do this and who can be spared is both a difficult and a delicate task. Obviously the whole success of this stupendous enterprise will be largely determined by the personnel of the men who administer it.

In order to help the department of personnel select the 57 men from Wisconsin, a committee is being formed, composed of two normal school presidents, two college presidents, two college presidents, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, a representative of the University of Wisconsin, and the state representative of the Y. M. C. A. overseas service.

This committee, of whom President Brannon of Beloit college is acting chairman, will organize this week and begin at once the sifting process that will be necessary to enable Wisconsin to furnish its quota of men competent and able to grapple with the great educational problems of our overseas men. The demand is immediate and men will be sent over as rapidly as they can be selected and their pass-ports arranged.

Says Peace Offer Was Made In 1917

COPENHAGEN (Thursday, Nov. 28.—Vienna newspapers publish a letter from Count Czernin, explaining an alleged American peace offer in December, 1917. He says it was one of many cases in which unauthorized private individuals tried to accelerate the return of peace. In this particular case, he says a manufacturer made overtures but was unable to prove that he was accredited by the American or any other government.

If it came from anyone else but Cornelius McGillicuddy, everyone would emit a large guffaw and let it go at that.

But there is sense in Connie's suggestion.

ASKS BRITISH AND U. S. UNION TO KEEP PEACE

Canadian Premier Says Two Nations Can Guarantee Security

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON (Thursday, Nov. 28.)—Sir R. L. Borden, Canadian premier, today approved of the plan to form a league of nations but insisted that England and America are able to command the peace of the world by acting together. He said:

"Let us have a league of nations, if it can be realized, but at least let us have that understanding and unity of purpose and action between the two worldwide English speaking commonwealths which will save humanity in years to come from the unbearable horror, suffering and sacrifice of the war such as this."

"United by ties of race, language, literature and traditions the nations of the Britannic commonwealth and the states composing the great American republic can command the peace of the world. They could have commanded it in July, 1914, if they had given Germany their joint warning."

"By their overwhelming power and influence rather than can divorce itself from those responsibilities. Let no minor consideration, no petty rivalry and no unworthy distrust divide those who, united, can command the world's abiding peace."

MacK gives as the main reason the fact that this bartering of talent gives a tremendous advantage to the ball club backed by unlimited millions over the club owned by men with less capital who are taking a greater chance than the millionaire moguls.

Try Grandmother's old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

At any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

OPEN LATCH IS KEYNOTE OF DAY OF THANKS

Churches Hold Services; Men in Uniform Guests in City's Homes

Thanksgiving day, rather hard on the family visits and hospitality, and the first snow storm of the year, made Thursday, the day of thanks, a day of the joy of the realization of peace on earth.

In spite of the weather and the mother's rush in getting the dinner going and on the table without mishap, all Madison churches which held special Thanksgiving services were crowded, a particular religious fervor of praise imbuing all in the joy of the end of the war.

Soldiers and sailors were guests in practically every home in the city, in many of the instances taking the place of the son or son who, it was hoped, were eating their Thanksgiving dinner in the homes of new found friends in other lands.

Open house was the keynote of Madison's Thanksgiving day. Soldiers and sailors came home to Madison and others went home from Madison; university women, although not in large numbers, took the trains for nearby homes to eat turkey with Mother and Dad; women and men, employed in and out of the city, crowded the trains all day, going and coming.

About 500 braved the storm and snow and ventured out to Camp Randall where one of the most exciting football games of the season was played amidst the mud. The rain and snow drove everyone inside and the movies and Orpheum were crowded at all shows.

A military dance was given at the Klubi and Blue club in the evening. Dances at the Studio and many private home dances were given especially for the guests in service uniform.

PACKERS TO BE PROBED ON HIGH PRICES

Leaders in Food Industries Will be Invited to Explain Costs

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO—Heads of the big packing companies with other leaders in the food industry in Chicago and the nation will be invited to tell the United States district attorney and probably a federal grand jury later, what they know about the cause of the present high prices.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Frederick Dickinson, who is in charge of the inquiry, declared today his investigation will be sweeping in character and include every branch of the food industry.

Thanksgiving

What day do you think this is? Yesterday wasn't Sunday.

Oh, I got the goat today. Had too much to eat.

Didn't do a thing but stay home and eat and sleep.

How did the football game come out? I didn't even get out there.

Such were the many illuminating remarks proffered this morning by the city's business men and women. Oh, yes, a few of them said they even worked a while Thursday.

But in spite of the office people spent a quiet day at home, there were many vacant posts in the city's round this morning.

Judge E. Ray Stevens of circuit court is off, it is supposed on a few days' hiking trip with a number of other enthusiastic pedestrians, led by Prof. Samuel Weidman, to his farm home near Ablesman.

Alvin C. Blaz, soldier clerk with the city draft board, spent Thanksgiving with his family in Milwaukee.

Postmaster W. A. Devine and his aids worked all morning getting special deliveries to their destination.

The chief's office and the police had quiet time, quite in contrast, they say, to the olden days when the saloons were on the job.

The firemen were, perhaps, the most active of any organization, being kept on the run during the afternoon and evening answering chimney fire calls.

Triple Award

The Industrial commission today handed down another decision in which treble compensation was allowed because an employer violated the provisions of the Child Labor Law.

This was in the case of Rudolph Balke, Sr., father of Rudolph Balke, Jr., a boy of seventeen years and eight months of age who was killed on June 21, 1918, while employed as an electrician's helper.

The Child Labor Law provides that no minor under eighteen years of age may be employed in the erection of repairs of electrical wires, the work which young Balke was doing when he was killed.

The commission found that the boy contributed one hundred dollars per year to support of his parents. Under the compensation act, the normal death benefit in a case of this kind is four times the amount of the contribution to the dependents. The Child Labor Law was, however, the compensation was trebled, the parents receiving in all the present value of three hundred dollars.

Young Balke misinterpreted his age to the International Harvester Company, but under the law, this cannot be pleaded as a defense by the employer. The commission states in its opinion: "Employers must know at their peril that they are not making use of boys of immature years at work which the legislature has said is dangerous to their life," regardless of whether the injured minor or his parents misinterpreted his age in order to secure employment, and that there is nothing for the Industrial commission to do but to treble the compensation when the minor is in fact employed in violation of the Child Labor Law.

Consequently, the commission urges all employers to get behind the mere statements of minors as to their age and suggest that documentary proof such as birth certificates or a baptismal certificate be required in every doubtful case.

YANKS CROSS FRONTIER BRIDGES

Found Structures in Good Condition; Germans Make no Complaint

LUXEMBURG (Sunday, Nov. 24)

American engineers crossed the frontier bridges between Luxembourg and Rhenish Prussia today at various points on the American front. The engineers went into Germany individually and in pairs and reported the bridges in good condition. The ends of the bridges on the Luxembourg side are guarded by American troops. Civilians are permitted to pass back and forth provided they have passes issued by officials in various villages along the line.

At Beiersdorf, Gravenmacher and Wormeldange and other points where there are bridges, groups of German civilians and soldiers assembled during the day, but they made no attempt to cross.

For many years it has been the custom along the border for relatives and friends to visit each other across the border on Sundays. The placing of American guards and the limitation of the number of passes issued by the Luxembourg officials interrupted these usual visits today. However, there was no complaint.

Heartburn, Belching, Indigestion, Food Repeating and Nearly All kinds of Bodily Miseries

The first sign of stomach misery usually comes after over-eating. The doctors call it "supercidity". The people say—"sour stomach".

Millions of people who have lost their ambition, energy, courage, vitality and strength—who are weak, pale and listless—who go through life just dragging one foot after another—tired and worn out nearly all the time—nervous, irritable, subject to severe headache, insomnia, and a long train of physical ills—would be surprised, yes, dumbfounded, to learn that it is just an acid-stomach that is causing them all their misery. Yet in nearly nine cases out of ten that is just where the trouble starts.

Now a sour acid-stomach, or "supercidity", of course, simply means too much acid in the stomach. You can now quickly rid your stomach of its excess acid. A wonderful modern remedy called EATONIC literally wipes it out. It does the work easily, quickly and thoroughly. It makes the stomach pure, sweet, cool and comfortable. It helps you to get full strength out of every mouthful of food you eat; and unless you do get full strength from your food you cannot enjoy robust, vigorous health.

EATONIC is in tablet form. They are pleasant to take—just like a bit of candy and are absolutely harmless. Take EATONIC and find out for yourself how wonderfully different you will feel. See how quickly EATONIC banishes the immediate effects of acid-stomach—black, heartburn, belching, food repeating, indigestion, etc. See too, how quickly your general health improves—how much you relish your food—how much more easily your food is digested—how soundly you sleep—how nervousness and irritability disappear. And all this because, by taking EATONIC, you rid your stomach of a lot of excess acid that has been holding back and making your life miserable.

So get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist today. He is authorized to guarantee EATONIC to please you and you can trust him to make this guarantee good. If EATONIC fails in any way, take it back—he will refund your money. If your druggist does not keep EATONIC write to us direct and we will send you a big box of EATONIC and a bottle of EATONIC Remedy Co. Address: E. L. Kramer, EATONIC Remedy Co., Wabash Ave., Chicago.

BOAT YARDS CLOSED.

MANITOWOC — The Burger Boat Building company plant has been closed down temporarily, pending a decision by the government as to the extent of completion on contracts which the company holds. The employees of the company, numbering nearly 200 were told Monday that the yards would not be open. Discontinuance of work on government contracts are said to have been issued also to yards at Sturgeon Bay, Green Bay and Marine City.

The Burger yards have contracts for a number of 100 foot tug for the government and some of the boats are under construction and probably will be completed as soon as the department at Washington adjusts matter. The Burger yards are expected to reopen in a few days.

GREAT OLD REMEDY FOR SKIN DISEASES

tions—Drives Poison From the System.

Get it fixed in your mind that skin eruptions, Scabies, Eczema, burning, itching skin, and all skin diseases are due entirely to impure and infected blood. If the trouble was on the outside of the skin, by simply washing and keeping it clean you could obtain relief—not even ointments, lotions, and salves would be necessary. Agree with us in this belief, and your trouble can be relieved—you can be entirely restored to health. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable treatment that you can secure from your own druggist—it is a blood tonic that will purify your blood and cause a most decided abatement of your trouble, and finally make you entirely well. Fifty years ago S. S. S. was discovered. During this period it has proven its remarkable curative properties as a blood purifier and tonic, and has relieved thousands of cases of disease caused by poor or impure blood, and chronic or inherited blood diseases. You can be relieved, but you must take S. S. S. Take it if only pimples appear, for they denote bad blood and may be followed by the sufferings and torturing skin eruptions. Therefore be sure. Don't take chances, don't use lotions. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. If you are a special case, write for expert medical advice. Address Medical Director, 438 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

PICTURES OF WAR AT THE MUSEUM

The white-fenced grave with the simple cross on which can be read, "Here Rests on the Field of Honor, Quentin Roosevelt—" is one of the many interesting spots and scenes in France which are shown in the collection of actual photographs sent by the French Pictorial Service to the University of Wisconsin. These fifty pictures are now on exhibition at the State Historical Museum this week.

RED BLOODED MENFIGHTERS

THEY RULE THE WORLD
In Every Walk of Life

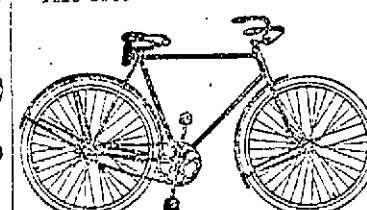

Red blooded men are born leaders in every walk of life and fight intelligently with both brain and muscles. They are always live wires, smiling and full of ginger; keen, alert on their toes and ready for anything that comes their way. Work is a pleasure and they land on top every time.

You will not find a strong, successful man or woman trying to push along with poor health or weak nerves. They know better; they are wise and see to it that their blood has plenty of good fresh iron and their nerves at all times loaded with Phosphates—the nerve food.

A leading doctor says, "Show me a strong, healthy successful man or woman and you can bank on it every time, their bodies are just loaded with iron and Phosphates." And other prominent physician says, "There is no need of anyone going through life sickly, miserable, played out, fagged and nervous when Phosphated Iron will always put energy and vigor in the body, mind and nerves." This same doctor also said, "With the system loaded with Phosphated Iron you can fight life's battle at any stage of the game and be a winner at every turn."

Mr. Run Down man or woman in any stage of life, if you feel all in, your nerves are all shot, and life seems like one continual drag and drudgery from day to day, get next to yourself, wake up, take a brace. Lay in a supply of Phosphated Iron and take a new lease on life. You will once again feel like a live one and face the world with the smile that wins. Are you game? To insure physicians and their patients, receiving the genuine Phosphated Iron, it has been put up in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to give you tablets or pills. Insist on capsules—C. H. Naiff, the Druggist, and leading druggists everywhere.

Smashing forward to within the enemy's ten yard line twice in the closing minutes of the game, Wisconsin, on Thursday, scored on its second onslaught, with less than a minute to play, and defeated the Michigan Aggies, 7 to 6, in one of the fiercest contests ever staged at Camp Randall. Barr's goal after the Badger touchdown rounded out with a victory the Wisconsin season.

The battle was waged on the worst field in years. A grizzling snowstorm never slackened during the game and the griden was covered with three inches of slush. Fast open play was impossible and fumbling was common.

Score in Second Quarter
 The Aggies scored in the second quarter when Schwei blocked an attempted punt on Wisconsin's forty yard line and ran to within two yards of a touchdown before being headed. The Badger line held twice, but on the third plunge, Ferris scored. Archer raised goal.

Wisconsin outplayed the visitors in every quarter except the third, when the battling was even. In the first period, and again in the second, the Badgers worked the ball to the Aggies' twenty-five yard line, but both times were halted and forced to try place kicks, which went wild.

Fail to Make Downs
 The Aggies made only one first down, the only successful forward pass of the game giving them fifteen yards in the third quarter. Wisconsin made first down only six times, three of which came in the last quarter. In this period the Badgers brought the ball to within twelve yards out, but lost it on downs.

The Aggies then punted poorly and Wisconsin started its final drive from the eighteen yard line, five plays bringing the touchdown, which was made by Smith.

The Aggies outplayed Wisconsin, but their backs were inferior. Capt. Manna's playing at tackle featured the Badger defense, while Smith starred in the attacks. Schwei was the star of the Aggies, his steadily tackling checking Wisconsin on numerous occasions.

 Wisconsin: L.E. Schwei, L.T. Anderson, M.C. Margolis, R.G. Johns, R.E. Bos, D. Deaghey, R.H. Brady, L.H. Smith, R.H. Snyder, Collins, R.H. Snyder, Sundt, F. Graves, Barr, Q. Ferris.

MADISON AND STEVENS POINT PLAY A TIE

Game is Fought on Field That is Deep With Mud

STEVENS POINT—The state high school championship is still undecided. Stevens Point high and Madison high school, two claimants of the title, battled to a scoreless tie here on Thursday. Several times Stevens Point came within a few yards of scoring, but lacked the punch to put the ball over. Stevens Point will meet Superior high school, another claimant of the title, on Saturday. The two teams battled on a field that was almost impossible for playing because of the mud.

Some Joy For These 2,000 Men

(By the Associated Press)
TOURS, Monday, Nov. 25.—An American liner will sail from a French port in a few days for Rotterdam, where it will take on board 99 American officers and 2,000 men who have been prisoners of war in Germany. Major General James G. Harbord has directed that sufficient rations and clothing be taken to Rotterdam and that the commissary department provide tobacco, canned goods, playing cards, toilet articles, soap and towels for issue to the prisoners.

A notable detail in the personnel will be a brass band so that when the ship sails into Rotterdam, the Americans waiting there will hear the Star Spangled Banner being played on the vessel, sent to take them away to freedom.

GERMAN LEADER PROTESTS FLAG BEING LOWERED

Says Internment Does Not Mean That Colors Are to be Brought Down

(By the Associated Press)
LONDON (Thursday) Nov. 25.—Admiral Von Buxtehude, commander of the German fleet, has protested against the order of Admiral Sir David Beatty of the British fleet directing that the German flag be hoisted down. He points out under the terms of the armistice interment in a British harbor is equivalent to internment in a neutral port where, in accordance with precedent, flags are allowed to remain hoisted. He adds: "I esteem it unjustifiable and contrary to international custom to order the striking of the flag on German ships. Moreover, in my opinion the order to strike the flag was not in keeping with the idea of chivalry between the two honorable opponents."

Admiral Beatty, calling attention to the fact that the armistice merely suspended hostilities and that a state of war still exists between Germany and allies has replied: "Under the circumstances no enemy vessel can be permitted to fly its national emblem, while under custody."

30TH DIVISION TO RETURN TO THE U. S.

The 30th division is made up of the representatives from Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina and the District of Columbia.

GERMAN TROOPS CROSS RHINE TOMORROW

Will Require 8 or 9 Days; Hindenburg Urges Courtesy

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY OF OCCUPATION, Thursday, Nov. 28.—General Von Der Marwitz's 5th army will begin crossing the Rhine tomorrow. The crossing will require 8 or 9 days, according to reports reaching here.

According to the German plan, 200,000 men will be quartered daily at Frankfurt but accommodations for but 30,000 daily have been prepared. Congestion at Treves is reported, resulting in units proceeding on foot toward Coblenz. It was originally planned to move the troops toward Germany by rail. At other points it is said that the roads are unable to handle the extraordinary traffic and that thousands of troops are marching eastward after waiting days for trains. Apparently the Germans are endeavoring to withdraw as rapidly as possible.

Copies of a proclamation by Field Marshal Von Hindenburg urging German soldiers and civilians to receive allied troops with "regeneration and courtesy" have appeared in villages opposite the American lines. The proclamation says this is the best policy in view of the fact that Germany is no longer able to make resistance against the allies.

Judge Prendergast dissents.

Woman Opposes Former Premier

LONDON—Herbert H. Asquith, liberal leader and former premier, will be opposed for his seat from the east district of Fifehire in the coming elections by Mrs. George E. Hope, widow of Lieut. Col. Hope who was killed during the war. Col. Hope was a nephew of the earl of Rosebery, a former premier. Mrs. Hope is running independently and one of her planks is a demand that William Hohenzollern be brought to England to be tried for murder.

MOONEY IS GIVEN LIFE; FIGHTS ON

Gov. Stephens' Commutation to Life Term Not to Stop Fight

MOONEY IN STATEMENT

Says He Would Prefer to Hang Rather Than go to Living Grave

(By the Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—The death sentence of Thomas J. Mooney, convicted of murder in connection with the bomb explosion which killed ten people here July 22, 1916, during a prohibition day parade, having been commuted to life imprisonment by Gov. Stephens last night, no further legal steps can be invoked in Mooney's behalf, attorneys said today. Mooney will be removed from the death cell which he has occupied since July 17 of this year, and given employment with other prisoners. Many strikes had been planned for Dec. 9, by labor organizations as a protest against Mooney's execution.

WIFE NOT PLEASED WITH COMMUTATION
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—When notified of the action of Governor Stephens in commuting the death sentence of her husband to life imprisonment, Mrs. Mooney said: "The action of Governor Stephens is a practical admission on his part that Tom is not guilty of a hanging offense. 'Being guilty of a hanging offense, why should he be given life imprisonment?'"

Whether these proposed strikes now will be carried out, labor leaders here were unable to say today. From his cell Mooney issued a statement protesting against commutation of his sentence. "I would rather hang," he said, "than to be condemned to a living grave."

Mooney also applied to labor leaders to continue their efforts in his behalf. "I refuse to recognize this case as in any fashion representing a clash between capital and labor," the governor said, and he characterized as "sheer propaganda" that would make Mooney appear as a martyr to the cause of labor.

In support of this statement he quotes a letter from Alexander Berkman outlining the plan afterward adopted for the Mooney campaign.

Called Friends of Germany.
 He denies that Mooney is a true friend of labor and characterizes his previous record as such that it not enlist faith in him among law-abiding citizens, but says in conclusion that this particular case has been decided on its merits.

The case as presented to the California courts was that of murder without further evidence of motive than the impossible tenets of anarchists whose sympathies for the German cause in the war are well known. Their wild pacifist theories fitted into the widespread activities of the kaiser's agents in this country.

"A number of persons of pronounced anarchistic tendencies were arrested shortly after the explosion which was set for Dec. 12."

The war-section of the 1919 university Badger, which is to carry records, pictures and stories of all men in service, is to be edited by Miss Margaret Melass, Stoughton, a university senior. The war section is to be one of the most important sections of the annual this year.

Women are playing an unusually prominent part in university publications this year. The Badger has 75 women on the business staff and about 50 on the literary staff. Women are editors of all departments except entries and athletics. Women are holding down the positions of business manager, advertising manager, purchasing manager, assistant circulation manager, and foreign circulation manager. In former years women's scope was extended scarcely beyond the sorority and women's activities section.

BOLSHEVIKI INVADE RICH BALTIC LANDS

Are After Food in This District; Germans Reported Leaving

HELSINGFORS, Finland, Thursday.—The commander of Bolsheviks in northern Russia has reported his followers to invade the rich Baltic provinces to obtain provisions.

It is reported German troops have partially abandoned the Narva front and are asking that they be returned to Germany. German forces which have been at Dunaburg, 110 miles southeast of Riga, are leaving. Russian prisoners of war who have returned to the city, are causing serious disorders.

The new cabinet of Estonia is of strong socialist proclivities and is supported by a labor council which is dominated by the Bolsheviks. The situation there is said to be very grave and speedy help is necessary.

"Originally, in January of this year, I received a letter from the president asking me if it would not be possible to postpone the execution of Mooney until he could be tried upon one of the other indictments against him. Inasmuch as an appeal already had been taken to the supreme court of California, which appeal itself acted as a stay of the execution, there was at that time no occasion for action on my part. I take it that the president was not correctly informed as to the status of the case."

Former Austrian Emperor Reported in Bad Mental State

HUNGER IN COUNTRY

Soup Kitchens Have Been Established in City of Vienna

(By the Associated Press)
AMSTERDAM (Thursday)—Former Emperor Charles of Austria is suffering from a mental depression. He sits for hours at his desk staring vacantly. Former Empress Zita is much distressed by her husband's state of health.

To Bring to Trial
LONDON—The Vienna government intends to bring to trial all persons responsible for the war, including Count Berchtold, Austria-Hungarian foreign minister when the war broke out, and Count Czernin, foreign minister at a later period, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen today.

Former Emperor Charles, the Austrian grand duke, and a number of generals are also to be tried, according to these advices.

Soup Kitchens in Vienna

The population of Vienna is reported in a desperate condition from lack of food, according to a message to the Daily Express from its correspondent in Vienna, who claims to have had an official reception there and to have been given special opportunities for investigating behind the scenes.

The correspondent's message, which is dated Nov. 25, tells of the soup kitchens established in the city. Each of the ten kitchens, he says, is feeding daily 6,000 women, and children, who have to stand in line for hours awaiting admission.

Each receives less than a pint of soup made of rotten cabbage and flour containing a quantity of sawdust. On Sunday a little horse flesh is added.

TELLS OF WORK OF SURVEY PARTY

Prof. Smith Discusses Survey of Mexican Border

The illustrated lecture on "The Mexican Border Survey," given in the auditorium of the Engineering building Wednesday night, was attended by more than 800 men in uniform and several university women.

The story of his work with a party of American engineers, who began a survey of the United States-Mexico border in February, 1922, was told by Prof. L. S. Smith. In the surveying party there was a company of infantry of cavalry, a medical staff, and 300 pack mules. The work was divided into four sections, the astronomical which determined the tangent which ran straight lines, the topographical, and the party for setting up monuments.

The lecture was illustrated by slides showing the desert and mountainous country through which the boundary line runs. The work of surveying required two years. Steel monuments six to eight feet high, anchored in concrete blocks, were set up two miles apart on the boundary.

Professor Smith told many stories of his experiences in the desert and with the Mexican people. Specimens of animal and insect life of the desert such as the centipede, scorpion, tarantula, rattlesnake, trap door spider nest, terrapin were examined by the audience after the lecture.
